Club Update

- Superchargers sale- completed, club is now solvent.
- Domestic structure- white ball format for both men and women confirmed, still waiting to hear on men's red ball. Yorkshire have submitted their vote.

Review of Scarborough/outgrounds

- Scarborough's problems are well-known and they are being discussed at board level.
- Different models of organising games at York and Scarborough is not ideal.
- Staging games in South Yorkshire is a medium term plan, 2027 at the earliest.

2026 Membership

- Positive outcomes from 2025 members' survey.
- 2026 will be the first year for women's paid memberships.
- MRG members were welcome to make suggestions on the offer for 2026.

Members' comments

- The club received emails from MRG members with a list of topics/questions/concerns that members raised with them. A couple were discussed at the meeting. Club staff have these on record. They will be dealt with accordingly in an appropriate timescale.

AOB

- The end of season dinner will be held after the 2nd day's play of the Durham game. Kevin Sharp will be the guest speaker and the result of the player of the year vote will be announced on the night.

Meeting Closed at 5:10PM
